

FARMING: THE FIRST 12,000 YEARS

Saturday 20th July | The Pitt Rivers Museum, OX1 3PW

#Farming12k

Does the future of farming lie in its past?

Join us to celebrate the opening of our brand new trail and take a journey through 12,000-years of farming. With daytime activities for the whole family and an evening event in collaboration with TOAD gin, you can unlock the secrets of farming's past and discover how we can shape it's future.

Daytime event 12:00 – 16:00 (all ages welcome)

Trail Tours | Archaeology Lab | MERL @ the Pitt Rivers Museum | The Daily Grind | Future of Farming with the Oxford Food Bank and Good Food Oxford

'From Grain to Glass' 19:00 – 21:00 (18+ only)

Come and meet the people behind TOAD gin and find out how contemporary gin production links to research currently being undertaken at the University of Oxford's School of Archaeology. Discover how TOAD use traditional grain varieties to make their award-winning spirits and try them for yourself!

For more information:

<https://www.prm.ox.ac.uk/event/farming-the-first-12000-years-0>

FREE to attend. All ages welcome during the daytime, children must be accompanied by an adult at all times.

Evening event adults only (18+) and booking required via Eventbrite (see website)